INTRODUCTION

The Cobb Pilcher Papers, 1784-1967, deal with the life and times of Dr. Cobb Pilcher (1904 - 1949), neurosurgeon at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, and his wife, Barbour Howe Pilcher. One genealogical scrapbook has been placed on deposit while the remainder of the collection is a gift of Mrs. Cobb Pilcher through the agency of Mrs. Roy C. Avery of Nashville, Tennessee, on behalf of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in Tennessee.

The materials in this collection measure 9.24 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials.

Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Cobb Pilcher Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Cobb Pilcher Papers, containing approximately 3,000 items and 6 volumes, span the period 1784-1967. The collection is mainly composed of correspondence, biographical and genealogical data, accounts, and clippings regarding Cobb Pilcher, famous surgeon, and his wife, Barbour (Howe) Pilcher. Several scrapbooks contain art items collected and compiled by Mrs. Pilcher. The correspondence of Dr. Pilcher includes letters from many famous physicians during the period of his life as a surgeon. One scrapbook covering the life of Cobb Pilcher with genealogical charts, pictures, and letters of his ancestors has been placed on deposit. With the exception of this volume, the collection is a gift from the estate of Mrs. Pilcher through the agency of Mrs. Roy Avery of Nashville, Tennessee.
