Be a Great Leader

A great leader stands up for others. If somebody is getting bullied a leader politely asks the bully to stop and tells someone in charge. A great leader tells her own ideas but also listens to others' ideas. She shows respect for others when she listens and looks them in the eye. She is not afraid to say, "I was wrong!" or "Let's work together!". A great leader makes friends with all people. She is sure to include everyone in decisions. Kind words are used all the time. This is how to be a great leader.
